

Vu A. Ngo, DO is board certified in Family Medicine and Osteopathic Manipulative Treatment. He earned his medical degree from Western University of Health Sciences, College of Osteopathic Medicine of the Pacific and completed his residency at Choctaw Nation Family Medicine Residency Program where is also served as Chief Resident. After completing his training, he remained in Talihina, OK working for the Choctaw Nation in the Family Medicine Department and Dermatology Department. He also serves as the Associate Program Director and Core Faculty for the Choctaw Nation Family Medicine Residency Program. His interest is to provide the best training for the residents and bring more healthcare to rural community.