

Frank Goodman, DO, MS, PGY3 graduated from William Carey University of College of Osteopathic Medicine in 2018. Prior to osteopathic medical school he graduated from University of North Texas Health Science Center with a Master of Science Degree in Clinical Research Management. Dr. Goodman is completing residency training in Osteopathic Family Medicine at OSU Medical Center in Tulsa in June of 2021 and will matriculate into Osteopathic Neuromusculoskeletal Medicine Residency at OSU Medical Center. Dr. Goodman plans on pursuing Obstetric/Maternity-Care Fellowship in Family Medicine following graduation from ONMM. Dr. Goodman was Chair of the Resident American Academy of Osteopathy Executive Council from 2020-2021, along with Chairing the AAO Annual Convocation Resident Lecture Track Series Program. Dr. Goodman has presented nationally on Alzheimer's Disease and is continual advocate of Osteopathic Manipulative Medicine in his patients.