

Sarah Hall, DO is a Professor of Family Medicine at OSU Center for Health Sciences. She is a graduate of OSU College of Osteopathic Medicine and OSU Family Medicine Residency. She is the current Program Director and Director of Osteopathic Education for the OMECO Teaching Health Center Family Medicine Residency. She holds many national positions within the ACOFP, NBOME and is an AOA Ambassador. She values the uniqueness of her Osteopathic roots and aims to provide high quality health care to every patient she has the privilege to treat. She enjoys teaching the Osteopathic medical students and residents affiliated with the OSU Center for Health Sciences and the OSU Medical Center. Her primary interests are women's health care, global health, and physician wellness.