

David H. Good, DO, is the family practice specialist in Wagoner, Oklahoma. He attended and graduated, with honors, from the Oklahoma State University College of Osteopathic Medicine in Tulsa, OK in 1989. He stayed in Tulsa to perform his family medicine residency at the Oklahoma State University Medical Center. Board certified in family medicine, Dr. Good is the chief of staff at the Wagoner Community Hospital and the president of the ACOFP – Oklahoma Chapter.

When Dr. Good is not working, he enjoys travel with his wife Ana and with seven-year-old son Joshua. In addition to being the program chair of the 2020 Winter CME Seminar this weekend, Dr. Good is also celebrating his wife's accomplishment of becoming a United States citizen today!
