

Atul A. Walia, DO, earned his doctor of osteopathic medical degree from the Oklahoma State University College of Osteopathic Medicine in 2004 and completed his residency at the OU Medical Center. Following his pain management fellowship at Texas Tech University, Dr. Walia returned to Oklahoma to practice in his hometown. Board-certified in anesthesiology and pain management, Dr. Walia's pain management practice philosophy is to relieve, reduce, or manage chronic pain and improve a patient's overall quality of life through procedures specifically designed to diagnose and treat painful conditions. When he's not managing pain, he enjoys traveling, fishing, and time with his wife, Bindu, and two children.
