

Jedidiah J. Perdue, MD, MPH, is the medical director at Arcadia Trails INTEGRIS Center for Addiction Recovery. Dually board-certified in addiction medicine and psychiatry, Dr. Perdue specializes in treating addictive illnesses, psychiatric illness that co-occurs with addiction, and psychiatric illness co-occurring with complex medical problems. Born in Ardmore, Oklahoma, Dr. Perdue graduated from OU College of Medicine in 2004, then completed his residency training in psychiatry at Duke University, where he also served as chief resident. He has been active in clinical practice in Oklahoma City since 2008 and has served in leadership roles for health systems and medical societies, as well as an instructor of medical students and residents. He serves as adjunct faculty for the Department of Biostatistics and Epidemiology for the Hudson College of Public Health and the Department of Psychiatry and Behavioral Sciences at the University of Oklahoma.